MEMORANDUM FOR SEE DISTRIBUTION

SUBJECT: Brigade Commander's Policy #12 - Safety

1. References.

- a. AR 385-10 Army Safety Program, dtd 4 Oct 11
- b. DA PAM 385-10 Army Safety Program, dtd 19 Jan 10
- c. FM 5-19, Composite Risk Management, dtd Aug 06
- d. INSCOM Policy Memorandum #5 INSCOM Safety Policy, dtd 23 Jul 12
- e. EUSA Command Policy Letter #8
- f. INSCOM OPORD 10-037

2. Purpose. To establish policy consistent with requirements defined within the references.

3. Summary. Every Soldier must be fully committed to help manage safety whether on duty or off duty with friends or Family members. Leaders must continually evaluate whether known standards are understood and enforced at the lowest level; this is no small task and it requires teamwork.

4. Specifics.

a. I expect leaders to maximize use of the Army's Composite Risk Management (CRM) process for identifying hazards and controlling risks across missions and activities. Secondly, battalions must appoint safety officers and identify alternate safety officers to assist with the administration of their safety programs. Ensure that safety officers attend 8A safety courses and that company commanders complete the US Army Commander's Safety Course Version 3.1 at <https://crc.learn.army.mil/webapps/portal/frameset.jsp>.

b. Establish safety councils to provide a forum that allows leaders to review the unit safety programs, identify areas for emphasis, direct resources to those areas that pose the greatest risk, and then disseminate relevant information to your units. Integrate rewards and awards programs to reinforce the importance of safety. The best resource to help shape your safety goals and

c. In order to reinforce safety consciousness, ensure that all assigned SFC and MSG/1SGs complete the Additional Duty Safety Officer Course as part of their in processing to the Brigade. NCOs who have previously completed the course do not need to retake this training. Ensure to maintain a record of course completion.

5. Point of Contact for this memorandum is the Brigade Safety Officer at DSN 723-3848.
